To whom it may concern

I am writing to highly recommend Basak Senova for her exceptional editorial and writing skills. She has contributed to the Project D-O Ark. Book as a co-editor with Sandra Miljević Hozić, published by the Association Biennial of Contemporary Art, Sarajevo (ISBN 978-9958-0966-2-4), demonstrating outstanding editorial work.

As an editor and a writer, Senova has displayed a keen understanding of contemporary art, showcasing a deep interest in, respect for, and thoughtful consideration for local communities.

Her ability to infuse creativity into the editorial process, meticulous attention to detail and keen editorial insights have ensured that each publication contributes significantly to advancing knowledge and research in the discipline. Her collaborative spirit and effective communication skills have been evident throughout our interactions. She has seamlessly coordinated with authors from different communities, publishers, and partnering institutions to bring each publication to fruition.

I recommend Basak Senova for the Artlab Editorial Fellowship with great confidence. With her progressive insight, critical thinking, and strong connection to diverse communities in the art field, she would be the ideal candidate for any writing endeavour.

Sincerely,

Edo Hozić
